Hewlett-Packard is an Equal Opportunity Employer, dedicated to workforce diversity.

We enjoy a fun-filled summer event where there is something for our entire family. My son is gay. I love the positive energy and excitement that comes from the celebration of diversity and our common humanity. I have two mommies. My next-door neighbor is fighting the war in Iraq, and her girlfriend and their children have no benefits if she gets hurt. I am bisexual. My dentist has a wonderful boyfriend who cuts my hair, and our children are best friends. I think I might be gay. No one puts on a better performance than drag queens; we wait all year for their show! My sister is a lesbian. Two students in my 8th grade English class are GLBT; I feel I must do something to ensure their safety and well-being. My father is transgender. I've just "come out of the closet", and I love the feeling of being able to be myself! My doctor is gay. The woman who answered my 911 call has a girlfriend of ten years to whom she cannot marry. I love to party! My partner and I have been together for 23 years, we celebrate that here among our community. My pastor is a lesbian. I have to show off my new outfit; it's simply fabulous! I am a democrat. My wife and I believe in equal rights for everyone, period. I am a Christian. The gays sure know how to have a good time, our crew never misses it! I am a city councilman. I was discharged from the military after 17 years because I would not lie. I am a republican. My church believes that the Bible preaches love for everyone. My nephew is gay. I am a black, gay, woman; you better believe I'm here. I stand for equality. It's important to honor the people from the Stonewall riots, and to continue to make visible our struggle for equality. I like the bands. My best friend is gay and we're like brothers; I'm here for him. I am 87 years old. My family is originally from the Middle East and we've also experienced oppression. I am 17. This city needs to pass a nondiscrimination policy that includes sexual orientation and gender expression. I am an American. PrideFest has awesome food, great performers and there's really something for everyone! I am human. I am gay!
